EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Meeting of Creditors.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A meeting of the creditors of Henry Clews & Co. was held yesterday at the office of Edgar Ketchum, register in bankruptcy, under an order of the United States district court, to show cause why they should not be declared bankrupts and discharged from their debts and claims. Objection was made by a number of creditors to their discharge in bankruptcy, and several specifications in opposition were filed. Among the claims presented was one of over $100,000 by Mr. Garner. A number of notices of appearances were put in, after which the meeting adjourned.

The Great Baltimore Failure.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24.—The creditors of Sterling, Ahrens & Co. have generally signed an agreement in connection with assignment of the affairs of the firm to Enoch Pratt and Robert T. Baldwin, as trustees. The matter under consideration is understood to be the obtaining of necessary bonds. The proposition involves the payment of $450,000 in full of the claim of the Calvert Sugar Refining Co., for ... of the liabilities of the concern, amounting to $416,000, of which $1,... is secured; assets available to unsecured creditors, nine hundred and fifty-seven thousand dollars. The account is complicated with items amounting to a million and a quarter on both sides of the account with the Calvert Sugar Co., which are sealed down upon a basis not clearly stated, but independent of the remaining account.

Opera House Burned.

DETROIT, Sept. 24.—A fire at Montague yesterday destroyed Ferrenson's opera house, which contained five stores, of which two were empty. Loss on building, $4,000; contents, $4,000. Turnbull & Kopley's boiler shop also burned. Loss, $5,000.

Hotel Burned—Four Lives Lost.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 23.—The Herndon House, Marshall, Michigan, burned at an early hour this morning. Four lives were lost, among them Claude Avery, of Marshall, and Miss Eliza King. The hotel was entirely destroyed.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 24.—A fire broke out in the Herndon House about 2:30 this morning cutting off all outside communication. It burned very rapidly, with dense smoke. The names of the lost are Claude G. Avery, jeweler; Antoine Gouber, carpenter; Eliza King, dining room girl; Martha Vospen, cook. Several persons were hurt by jumping from the windows. Dr. William Woodruff, ankle broken and cut on the head; Mr. Avery, burned about the lower limbs and bruised somewhat; porter Nick Renke, both legs broken; Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Calwell and child were slightly bruised about the head and neck, not serious; several agents lost everything in their rooms, with entire contents destroyed.

The Health of Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 24.—During the past few days letters and telegrams have been received here enquiring if there was any epidemic prevailing here. For the information of all concerned it can safely be asserted that this city was never more healthy than at present, and there has been nothing like an epidemic of any kind during the year.

Terrible Tragedy.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 24.—A special to the Appeal from Helena, Arkansas, says: During the latter part of last fall two men, named Deason and Strader, had a difficulty at Forest City, Arkansas. Deason shot Strader in the arm, causing it to be amputated. To revenge himself Strader went to Deason's house last night to shoot him. Having reached the house Strader went to one of the windows, raised his shotgun and fired, missing Deason, but emptying the contents of the gun into a young man 18 years of age named Thad. Herton, killing him instantly. Strader then fled the country.

The Maine Election.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 24.—Nearly complete returns of the vote in the 4th congressional district give Plaisted, Republican, a majority of 997.

Trapeze Performers Fatally Injured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A man and woman at Robinson's hall, last night, fell head foremost to the floor from the ceiling, while attempting a trapeze movement. Both are believed to be fatally injured.

Verdict for Damages.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Hogan has recovered a verdict of $8,000 damages against the Cumberland and Pennsylvania railroad, for the loss of her husband by a locomotive explosion. Suit was brought for $20,000.

A Forger Arrested.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—R. K. Turner, who has been charged with forging deeds, was taken from Quincy, Illinois, yesterday, to California, Mo., on a requisition from Governor Harding. He is charged with forging a deed to about $20,000 worth of land, two years ago, and it is expected some startling developments will be made at his trial, which will be next Monday.

More Crooked Whisky.

The case of Adler & Co., of St. Joseph, Missouri, charged with emptying certain barrels of whisky without canceling the stamps, came up yesterday in the U. S. district court for the western district of Missouri, now in session at Jefferson City. Quite a number of witnesses were examined, and, so far as the case has progressed, the testimony shows that about 200 barrels of spirits received from Speich & Sons' distillery were emptied at Adler & Co.'s rectifying house, and some barrels returned to the distillery with the stamps unobliterated, refilled with spirits and again sold, with the old stamps upon them, thus defrauding the government out of $8,000.

Later from the Scene of the Great Storm.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Herndon and family, reported lost at Velasco, are safe. Dr. Alexander and family, reported lost near Lynchburg, are saved; they lost everything but what they had on.

Aid for the Sufferers.

An Austin special to the News says the contributions for the sufferers on the coast will reach $5,000.

A San Antonio special of the 23d says: The storm which visited the coast did no damage here, and, though very little rain fell, the wind blew a perfect gale. The citizens of San Antonio, in a public meeting to-day, appointed a committee of thirty to solicit subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers.

Government Aid Refused.

The adjutant general telegraphs to the secretary of war, asking if government aid, as in the Alabama overflow, can be extended to the sufferers on the coast of Texas. The secretary replied that the Texas district inundated does not lie in the scope of country included in the law authorizing aid by the war department, and he can extend no assistance.

The New York Canal Thieves Arraigned.

BUFFALO, Sept. 24.—Ex-canal commissioner Alex. Barkley was this morning arraigned in the supreme court under a joint indictment found against him and G. D. Lord, Lewis J. Bennett, Thad. C. Davis, and Wm. H. Bowman, for conspiracy to defraud the state. He entered a plea of not guilty, and gave bail in $5,000.

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Money easy, 2½@3; Gold, 116⅝; Governments active and strong; stocks active and irregular. W. U. 75¾; Quicksilver, 15½; W. F. ?; Pacific Mail, 33⅞; New York Central, 103⅞; Erie 17; Panama, 132; Union Pacific 70; U. P. bonds, 101⅞; C. P. bonds, 104⅝.

Insurance Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The National Insurance convention continued its session to-day, President Chapman in the chair.

Mr. Heald, general manager of the Home Fire Insurance Co., of this city, was invited to address the body. He said it was unwise to tax insurance companies' stock in the various states in which they were domiciled. He believed the tax was a misnomer. If they were to be taxed, let it be in proportion of the privileges they enjoyed. All surplus money made by insurance companies last year in the state of Michigan, was absorbed in taxes alone. He contended that all cases of frauds perpetrated on the companies should be fought out to the end; that a great deal of speculation, lottery and gambling still existed among them, and that this spirit of speculation came over from England to be exploded here.

The convention then adjourned to meet in executive session this afternoon at Fifth Avenue Hotel.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—At the insurance convention this afternoon the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Oliver Pillsbury, of New Hampshire; Secretary, Stephen H. Rhodes, of Massachusetts. The committee on blanks reported a balance sheet blank, which was adopted. Copies were ordered to be sent to every insurance company in the United States, with a request to the different officials to use this blank for returns of December, 1875. The convention then adjourned.

Inquest on Fire Ladder Accident.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The jury in the inquest of the fire ladder accident found a verdict that the break was due to inferior materials and faulty construction of the ladder. The fire commissioners are censured for not hoisting the ladder practically before allowing it to be used, and its further use is condemned.

Suit for Damages.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A Greenville, South Carolina, dispatch says: Suit has been entered by W. E. Earle, editor of the Republican, against John C. and Edward Bentley, proprietors of the Enterprise and Mountaineer, for $10,000 damages for libel in publishing an article defaming him.

The President at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—President Grant and wife, accompanied by ex-Secretary Borie and wife, arrived here about noon to-day. The president will visit his farm to-morrow to arrange for the sale of his stock and leave for Des Moines, Iowa, on Monday evening, to be present at the soldiers' reunion there. The party will then start for Denver, via Omaha and Cheyenne.

Beef First, Diplomacy Afterwards.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, Neb., Sept. 21, VIA SIDNEY, Neb., Sept. 24.—Contrary to expectation last night, no council was held to-day, chiefly on account of this being the day beef is issued to the Indians, who kill it themselves, as nearly all the Indians attending council draw rations here. Employes at this agency have been very busy yesterday and to-day. It is hardly probable the proposition to lease the Black Hills country will be accepted. The Indians themselves do not look favorably upon it, and the squaw men are using their influence against it. The council is to be resumed at ten o'clock to-morrow morning.

Fire.

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 24.—The woolen mill of Geo. Jackson, near Little Falls, was burned to-day. Loss, $80,000.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Indian Agents Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The president has made the following appointments: Charles Darling of Minn., agent for Indians of Fort Berthold, Dakota Ter.; Alex. G. Irvine, of Illinois, agent for Indians of Navajo agency in New Mexico.

Young Fisher Pleads for Leniency, but Pierrepont is Inexorable.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—A Washington special says one of the worst chapters in the history of this badly governed district is the recent exposure of the corrupt management of the local courts. The attorney-general is doing all in his power to reform the former evil practices of the courts, and if given time will bring them up once more to the level of respectability. Yesterday some of the friends of young Fisher visited Mr. Pierrepont, and tried to persuade him to show leniency in the young man's case. He in reply stated that Fisher must be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The young man's social position entitled his father to the fullest sympathy, but all considerations of this kind would have to be foregone, with the view of making an example of a public officer who would so wantonly prostitute his official position. The case is now before the grand jury. In the present state of public opinion nothing but a sentence to the penitentiary will satisfy the citizens here that the ex-assistant district attorney has received justice.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Prince Imperial to Make a Tour of the World.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A Paris special says the Prince Imperial is to make a tour of the world, ostensibly for health, but really for political reasons.

Death of an Eminent Music Composer.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Madame Jeanne Louise Farenne, the celebrated musician and composer, is dead. She was in her 72d year.

Papal Consistory.

ROME, Sept. 23.—The pope held a consistory yesterday, at which several French and Spanish bishops were appointed. Monsigneur Diez was appointed bishop of St. Christopher, Cuba.

Spain and the Church.

MADRID, Sept. 21.—Ministerial newspapers announce that the government will soon reply to the note of the papal nuncio. They say no concessions will be made tending to prejudice the independence of magistrates in dealing with bishops, and especially the bishop of Leo De Urgel.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The text of a circular, addressed to the Spanish bishops by the papal nuncio at Madrid is published. The nuncio says he has been directed to communicate to the bishops the substance of a protest sent by the Cardinal Secretary of State of the Holy See to the Spanish government, upon the pope's attention being called to the toleration clauses in the new constitution proposed for Spain. A special dispatch to the Daily News from Madrid says the pope's recall of the papal nuncio, Cardinal Simeoni, and the implicit disavowal of his act, have occasioned considerable surprise. Monsignor Rapella is more liberal than his predecessor.

A New Nuncio.

MADRID, Sept. 24.—Monsignor Rapella is expected here to replace Cardinal Simeoni as papal nuncio. The latter leaves for Rome shortly.

Alfonsists Pushing the Carlists Across the Frontier.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The Times this morning publishes a special telegram from Bagnères De Luchon, France, containing the following: 12,000 Carlists are blockaded by 10,000 Alfonsists at Viella. They will probably be forced to cross the frontier at Pont Du Roi.

Banished.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—A special from Berlin says 1,500 Ural Cossaks have been banished to the penal settlement of Turkestan for having resisted the new military laws. Many more are likely to go, as the laws meet with much opposition in the Ural colonies.

Hops Damaged.

Great rains have been very damaging to the English hop crop.

The Turkish Troubles.

BELGRADE, Sept. 24.—News received from Sclavonic sources announces that the forces under the priest, Zorke, have been increased to 7,000. These have been divided into four corps at Tjentza and Prezorne, which they intend to fortify and hold.

VIENNA, Sept. 24.—Private telegrams report that Dervish Pasha has been surprised by insurgents near Raono and lost 200 men killed.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times declares the report that the road from Ragusa to Trebigne is closed is unfounded. The road has been open throughout the insurrection, and transportation of mails and provisions has at no time been interrupted. The Porte has notified the powers that it has issued the strictest orders to the army to respect the neutrality of Servia and Montenegro.

Gambetta is not Uneasy.

VIENNA, Sept. 24.—M. Gambetta was interviewed while in Vienna by a correspondent of the Press. He said he was not uneasy with regard to party divisions or Bonaparte and monarchial intrigues. The number of Bonapartist deputies might at most be doubled in the next assembly, but they would be unable to seize the government or transfer the army.

Inundation of Switzerland.

GENEVA, Sept. 24.—Recent rains in the Canton of Glaris have swollen the river Linth and its "affluents," and caused inundations in the town of Glaris and the surrounding country.

Centennial Meeting in Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—A crowded meeting, composed of the principal manufacturers of Paris, was held to-day for the purpose of inducing participation in the Philadelphia exhibition, and of furthering the interests of exhibitors. M. Dietz Monnin, member of the national assembly for Paris, presided, and delivered an address, in the course of which he took occasion to refute the insinuations thrown out by some German newspapers that goods on exhibition in Philadelphia might be liable to sequestration. He insisted upon the necessity for French participation in the exhibition. A resolve was unanimously adopted declaring representation of French manufactures at Philadelphia is to the interests of France in a patriotic as well as an economic sense, and the meeting engages itself to do all in its power to attain this object.

THE PRESS ON THE GHEGAN BILL.

The St. Paul, (Minn.), Pioneer-Press one of the ablest of our western exchanges, and a Republican journal withal says:

Not even the fervor of partisan declamation can exaggerate the importance of this issue, and there is nothing meretricious or illusory in the prominence which the Republicans of Ohio have given to it. That it serves a present party exigency may be fortunate for the Republicans; but it will be doubly fortunate for the people if it shall serve the party purpose so effectually that the fanaticism which has thrown this school question into the arena of politics shall suffer a chastisement so memorable that it will never dare to challenge another similar contest in Ohio or elsewhere.

It would have been well if the Republicans had been able to confine themselves within the well-marked logical limits of the principles at stake. But it is the nature of controversies in which sectarian jealousies on the one side are provoked by sectarian aggressions on the other to degenerate into a blind feud and of sectarian bigotry, in which reason, justice consistency are alike lost sight of. And the Ohio contest is no exception to the rule.

The opposition of the Ohio Republicans to the Ghegan bill is so curiously illogical and untenable and so flagrantly inconsistent with their attitude on the school question, that it would be difficult to comprehend if history and experience had not made us too familiar with the blind and stupid injustice of religious rancor. The Ghegan law is almost identical in terms and purpose with the Liberty of Conscience law enacted two or three years ago in this state.

Says the Chicago Times:

It is somewhat singular that some of the inflation organs who have been ringing all the changes on the "hard-money" failure in California do not have a word of comment upon the fact that there have been no failures among the business men of that state. This important fact does not serve to point a moral in the inflation interest, and hence it is carefully omitted.

The tax levy in Yamhill county this year is for county purposes, 8½ mills; state tax, 6½ mills; school, 3 mills. Total levy, 18 mills.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

A Libel Suit Commenced.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—The complaint in the libel suit of the proprietors of the Bulletin and Call against the Alta, was filed to-day. Damages are set at $25,000. The complaint, which is quite lengthy, states in effect that the plaintiffs have never published any false news or unjust or untruthful comments concerning the Bank of California or its management, and have never conspired to injure the bank or impair its credit, nor have ever endeavored to produce a financial panic in this state or elsewhere, or to increase one when existing, for the purpose of speculating in values or for any other purpose; but that the defendants, proprietors of the Alta, knowing the above facts, but envying the good name of the plaintiffs and their success as journalists, have charged them with the above-mentioned acts in an article published in the Alta of the 21st inst., which article is quoted as part of the complaint. The probability of this suit being commenced, has excited much comment, public opinion being divided as to the object in view, but the belief seems to be unanimous that if pressed to trial, racy developments will ensue.

Greenbacks 86 buying, 89½ selling.

California State Fair.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 24.—Horses only were paraded this morning. The various committees have been busy all the morning, and it is expected their reports will be made to-night or to-morrow morning. Children of the public schools are visiting the pavilion this afternoon. There is a good attendance at the track. The first race was a running race for a purse of $700, dash of three miles: $450 to first, $250 to second and third. The horses entered were Norfolk, Ballot Box, Fanny Hall and Hardwood. Ballot Box is such a favorite that pool-selling was at a discount. Ballot Box had the pole, Fanny Hall and Ed. Hardwood outside. This was a splendid race, and there was great excitement throughout. At the first quarter and on up to the half, a blanket would have covered all horses. From that point up to the stand Ballot Box drew ahead and made the first mile in 1:46, Hardwood close at his heels, with the mare a good third. Ballot Box continued to draw ahead, and the mare closed up the gap between herself and Hardwood. At the half she was ahead of Hardwood, following close up to Ballot Box. The second mile was made in 1:54, making 3:40 for two miles. It was clear now that Ballot Box had the race all his own way, and the only question was the distance which the other horses would be beaten. Ballot Box came first under the string, an easy winner, thirty yards in advance of Fanny Hall, Hardwood a length behind. Hall took the second money and Hardwood third.

The second race was also a running race, this time for three-year-olds, two mile heats, for a purse of $600—$400 to the first horse, $140 to the second, and $60 to the third. Entries, Major Bradley, Shannon, and Sherman. Bradley sold first, at an average of $75, Sherman $35, Shannon $10. Bradley ran two miles under a strong pull, and won the first heat easily. The first mile was run in 1:47; the last two miles in 3:40—Sherman second, Shannon third. Bradley won the next heat and the race and first money, in 3:44; Sherman second money; Shannon distanced.

The next was a running race, mile heats, for beaten horses, for $300; $200 to the first, $75 to second, $25 to third. Fanny Hall, Hardwood and Col. Cowles were entered. At the first turn Fanny Hall was a length behind. Cowles and Hardwood stumbled and fell, throwing her rider over her head, 10 or 12 feet in front of her. It is feared that he is seriously injured. The other horses kept on. The crowd immediately gathered around the prostrate rider. He was lying in an unconscious condition. The marshal galloped to the scene and kept the crowd back while three men occupied themselves in chafing the suffering man and fanning him with their hats. Cowles won the heat in 149½; Fanny Hall distanced. The anxiety of the spectators as to the fate of the injured rider, now became so great that Judge Carey found it necessary to announce that the boy would soon be all right, which was hailed with loud cheers. The mare was not injured, although she turned a complete somersault. The rider's name is I. Melon, nicknamed "Nush." It was ascertained that his shoulder was dislocated, and that he was suffering from concussion. He is 16 years of age, and has a mother in San Jose. Hardwood and Cowles got off well together for the second heat, Hardwood leading at the quarter, and he was three open lengths ahead at the half. Cowles ran up a little at the home stretch. Hardwood began to sulk, and was severely whipped. He responded, and jumped under the string winner of the heat by nearly ten open lengths; time, 1:45. The third heat was won by Hardwood in 1:50. Hardwood was awarded the first and third money, and Cowles second money.

OHIO AND FUNDING.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

The result of the Ohio election will probably determine whether Secretary Bristow will be able to negotiate four-and-a-half per cent. bonds at par. If he is able to do so the rate of interest can be reduced one-quarter on several hundred millions of the public debt. If he cannot get par for the four-and-a-half per cent, until a new funding act can be passed, and perhaps even then the success of Allen and Cary would make it impossible for the government to borrow at less than six per cent. The secretary of the treasury has now only $33,537,550 left of the new five per cent. loan, and, when the Syndicate have taken that (which they might do to-day with perfect safety were it certainly known that Allen and Cary would be repudiated by the people of Ohio), the reduction of the rate of interest on the public debt must come to a dead halt unless four-and-a-half per cent. bonds can be sold at par.

French rentes of four-and-a-half per cent. are now selling in Paris at about two per cent. below par. The credit of France stands as high among the capitalists of Europe as that of the United States. The high credit of France is largely due to the energetic measures taken by the French government and the Bank of France for the withdrawal of the war issues of paper money and the restoration of the specie standard. The burdens resting on the tax-payers of the United States, though needlessly aggravated by the extravagance of the national and local governments, are not nearly as heavy as those imposed on the people of France. We are paying off our public debt more rapidly than the French can hope to pay off theirs. We are far less exposed to the risk of war with neighboring States. Our government is more settled, and our growth in wealth and population is five times as rapid as that of France. Why then is our credit no better than that of a nation in which every adult inhabitant sees a revolution? Ex-Secretary McCulloch has answered his question in our columns in a manner so satisfactory that nothing remains for us to add.

In European countries statesmen and persons of poverty view with dread the operations of unprincipled demagogues among the discontented strata of their population. The attempts of Allen and Cary to unite the ignorant masses of our foreign-born and native citizens in favor of inflation, and in hostility to the bondholder, will, if successful, be a terrible blow to the credit of our national securities, not only abroad, but also at home. Such a campaign as that now in progress in Ohio is without a precedent in the political history of the American Union. The tirades of Allen and Cary give a character to the struggle which is not to be masked by any counter charges against the time-servers of the other party or any display of indignation at the corruption of the Administration at Washington. The election of Allen and Cary will open a desperate struggle between the friends of honest money and public credit and the interested advocates of social and financial disorder and their deluded victims. The credit of our securities, already depreciated far below the level at which it ought to stand, will sink still deeper, and the reputation we now have with foreigners will receive a darker shade. It does not become those who appreciate the gravity of the issue to waste the short time which intervenes between this day and the morning of the 12th of October.

OREGON.

The congressional candidates at Lafayette to-day.

Baker City was visited by some grateful rain showers last week.

Geo. DeBorde will be chief marshal of the Washington county fair.

The mercury went up to 92 degrees in the shade at Hillsboro last Friday.

A $5,000 slander suit will be for trial at the next term of the circuit court for Washington county.

North Yamhill has two stores, two blacksmith shops, a boot and shoe shop, a hotel and an academy.

Dr. Jessup was summoned in haste from Salem, last Wednesday, to attend Mr. Willard Tupper, who was badly hurt by the running away of a four-horse team he was driving. The accident took place in the vicinity of Wheatland.

The steamers Success and Grover now land at Dayton. The Grover lies over Sunday there, and makes the trip to Portland on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, returning the alternate days. The boats will be kept busy in removing this season's storage at Dayton.

Some of the folks on Pudding river, near Parkersville, set out fires in brush and dried stubble, and the unruly element broke forth and burnt a good bridge, an orchard, some 400 yards of fence, 500 cedar fence posts, and sundry other articles too numerous to mention.

The missionary board of the Columbia conference donated the sum of $637 to aid in the construction of a wing to the college building at Corvallis. This wing, which will be nearly as large as the present building, will be completed by the time winter sets in, and is calculated as a chapel and auditorium.

A letter from Forest Grove to the Independent says: We have several immigrants from Missouri here. They propose to return to their native land by the next steamer. They did not find General Jackson here, nor solid chunks of gold by the roadside, and so they became disgusted, and are going back.

Pursuant to notice, the creditors of J. W. Virtue met at Cleaver's hall, in Baker City, on the 18th day of September, 1875. R. Beers was elected chairman and L. B. Ison, secretary of the meeting. Daniel Smith presented a plan for the collection of the assets and for their distribution among the creditors. The plan was adopted and ratified by all the creditors signing the same, and under said plan Mr. Virtue resumes business. Pursuant to the provisions of the plan for liquidation, Messrs. C. M. Foster and W. H. Vanschuyver, assignees, and A. P. Weller, Daniel Smith and L. B. Ison were elected as an executive and advisory committee. It is thought that under the assignment the depositors will all get their money in time.

Speaking of the Corvallis and Yaquina railroad, the Gazette says: "In consequence of the illness of some of the most efficient canvassers and the rush of the farmers in their harvest, but little canvassing has been done in the past fortnight, but in a short time active operations will be resumed and a 'forward movement' made along the whole line. The work of canvassing will not cease now, when the goal is so nearly reached. The exact amount yet to be raised we do not know, but the balance is comparatively small, and will be raised, we have not the shadow of doubt. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the company will occur about the middle of next month. The whole matter should be closed up at that time."

Mr. J. Strong, the present telegraph operator at Salem, has forwarded to the patent office at Washington the model of an electro-magnetic engine, upon the construction of which he has been engaged for some time. The machine, which is very ingeniously constructed, consists of a large brass wheel, across the circumference of which are placed at regular intervals a number of armatures, and under the wheel are three magnets, so arranged that one or the other is constantly attracting the armature. On the shaft of the main wheel is a small wheel, the surface of which consists of alternate strips of iron and platina, on which three discs are ingeniously arranged to cut off the electric current in succession from each of the magnets, just in time to allow each armature to pass it and come under the attracting influence of the next.

FARMING ITEMS.

The Salem mills are paying 90 cents per bushel for wheat.

This week has about closed up the harvest in this valley. After the fairs, then the plow.

A man was made very sick by working in smutty wheat in Washington county last week.

Three thousand bushels of wheat were bought at 90 cents per bushel at Forest Grove last Saturday.

A Nehalem man has a 2-year old steer which he offers to run against any "cayuse" in Oregon at the Hillsboro Fair, for $20.

Isaiah Martin, just across the Yamhill river from McMinnville has this year harvested over 3,000 bushels of grain, and did all the work himself, besides attending to general matters and improvements on his home.

Wm. Henderson, of Yamhill county, has been working his father's place during the last two seasons, and this year he harvested the prodigious amount of 8,000 bushels of grain therefrom. The labor he performed himself, excepting about 30 days of hired help in seeding time, and excepting the harvest, of course.

The Reporter says: "Everything is in a rush at Dayton, now—the amount of wheat finding its way there is much larger than ever before. There is a continuous string of warehouses on the river, a quarter of a mile in length. These are nearly filled, and with the immense volume of grain that is headed that way, large additions will be required to those warehouses yet, in order to find storage for the grain. Transactions are very light at 90 cents per bushel. Captain Powell runs the warehouse above the bridge, into which he has gathered about 80,000 bushels, and isn't half done yet. Mr. Collard has control of the old warehouse, and has as much grain on hand, if not more than there is in the other."

The Hillsboro Independent contains some items concerning immense grain yields in Washington county. The following are pretty large, but, being in Oregon, we can swallow them: "John Groner raised this year off of 100 acres of land 4,000 bushels of grain. Ben. Tucker raised off of 2½ acres of ash bottom land 160 bushels of wheat. Theodore Bowlby, from 30 acres of ash and willow land, raised 1,655 bushels of wheat. Mr. Wagner, from 15 acres of land, raised 923 bushels of wheat. A man up on Wapato lake is reported to have raised a crop of wheat that went 90 bushels to the acre." But the following is a little too much for our credulity: "Mr. A. Tongue, from 16 acres of land, raised 11,000 bushels of oats." That would be just 687½ bushels per acre, and we want "affidavits."

Things in Ohio are pretty badly mixed up, as will be seen by glancing over this racy item from the Philadelphia Times:

And now Senator Dick Oglesby plunges into the Ohio campaign like a bull in a china shop, and makes a rattling greenback and inflation speech at a Republican meeting in Cincinnati. None of the Hayes men jumped out of the windows, and many of them applauded the rollicking Sucker orator, as he demanded greenbacks, and plenty of them and a hard-money Governor. Thus do contradictions multiply in Ohio, until bewilderment reigns everywhere. The Republicans of Cincinnati table a resolution demanding the repeal of the Ghegan law, and then lead a religious crusade because Ghegan is a candidate for re-election, while the Enquirer defends the Ghegan law and bolts against Ghegan as one of the nominees of its party. Morton must go to Ohio again and set things to rights, or fog-horn Allen will anchor his ancient hulk in the Gubernatorial chair for another term. One thing is certain—no matter who wins, nobody will be able to guess what measures have been settled by the victory.

FROM TACOMA.

CHEAPER TRAVELING THAN STAYING AT HOME—EVERYBODY GOES—PUGET SOUND COAL TRADE—NORTHERN PACIFIC MATTERS—HOPS—COMPETITION ON THE SOUND ENDED, BUT WILL COMMENCE AGAIN.

NEW TACOMA, Sept. 22, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

If every person on the Sound that ever leaves home at all, does not go to San Francisco now, it is because the steamer cannot accommodate them, for it is cheaper traveling than staying at home. Goodall, Nelson & Co., and the Pacific Mail Co. steamers are carrying on an as lively a competition as has ever been known in these waters. The fare in the first cabin from Tacoma, on the last trip, was only $7 50, and if a person didn't have that much coin, he could pay what he had and owe the balance. The low fares have wonderfully stimulated travel, the steamers of both lines being crowded to their utmost capacity, to and from San Francisco. It is giving the Northern Pacific railroad a big lift, as every steamer brings a large number of passengers for Oregon. Holladay's boats will have to run with light passenger lists, if the fares are not reduced on that route.

The competition from here is likely to be continued for some time, as it is a fight for the control of the business of the Sound, which is already considerable, and promises a rapid increase with the development of the coal interest. The Pacific Mail Company are running large steamers, and are taking all the coal they can get from the Seattle mines, but are unable to get all they want, owing to the present limited facilities for getting the coal to tide water. The construction of a railroad to the Tacoma mines will give them a full freight every trip for the largest vessels which they run in this trade, and, as the coal is greatly superior to any mined on the coast, a market for a much larger amount than both lines can carry is assured. The Pacific Mail Company are getting out thirty tons of this coal for a test. There is now little doubt that a railroad from Tacoma to the mines will be commenced at an early day, and I have no doubt that within a year the people of Portland will be toasting their shins before fires made of Tacoma coal; for, being equal to the Cumberland coal, it will furnish a fuel more economical, convenient and pleasant at the price which it can be laid down in Portland for than any other fuel. In view of this demand, and to bring the Wallamet wheat to this place for shipment, the Northern Pacific Railroad will be extended from Kalama to Portland next year.

Every one here is looking with great interest to the result of the meeting of the stockholders of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, which takes place on the 29th of this month, and no doubt is felt but their deliberation will result in active operations at both ends of the route. The successful conversion of almost the entire interest-bearing debt of $30,000,000 into stock in so short a time, promises well for the future of the road. There is probably no road in the United States that has so good a basis for credit as will the new Northern Pacific. Five hundred and fifty miles of first-class road completed, with rolling stock sufficient to stock one thousand miles, twelve million acres of land earned, in which is included the valuable coal lands of the Puyallup, and a franchise carrying 40,000,000 acres additional lands, with not one dollar of incumbrance, should, and will, no doubt, command the means for the completion of the road at an early day, and "we may be happy yet."

The hop fields of the Puyallup valley are now thronged with pickers, Indians and Chinamen. The picking has in previous seasons been done exclusively by Indians, but the increased acreage this year and the nonappearance of the Indians living east of the mountains, who have usually come over, necessitated the employment of Chinamen. Father Wilbur would not allow his Indians to come this year, fearing the contaminating influence of cultus siwash and whiskey. Lo would have to travel some distance from his work to get his regular nip, for though nearly every one in the valley is devoting his time, talent and land to the cultivation of the hop, and is therefore directly interested in the consumption of beer, there is not a more temperate body of people on the coast, and there is not a place in the valley where a glass of lager or a square drink of the "crooked," can be obtained for love or money. The climate is so healthful that they have not an excuse for even bitters. The yield of hops will be quite large, estimated 300,000 pounds, and an average price will bring a large amount of money into circulation, as the entire crop will be sold as soon as it can be got to market, hops not improving with age.

The lively steamboat competition on the Sound, which has been carried on during the past summer, has been terminated by the withdrawal of the Favorite. Star Bros. are now carrying the mail for the contractor. P. D. Moore, and fares are at the old rate. The Eliza Anderson, a steamboat built at Portland in 1857, and owned by Finch & Wright, is now being thoroughly repaired, and it is rumored will be put on as an opposition boat in connection with the Olympia, now at San Francisco, owned by the same firm. LETTER FROM SEATTLE.

SEATTLE, Sept. 22, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Seattle is certainly enjoying at present a degree of prosperity which her past history has been comparatively a stranger. Our streets are filled with people from various places upon the Sound—here to purchase (a good many of them) their winter stock of goods: farmers from the country, and a large number of strangers from San Francisco, Portland and the East, are here, many of them, to examine the real foundation of Seattle's life and business, and not a few are making their homes here, highly elated by the future outlook. Houses of any kind, either for dwellings or places of business are at a high premium, and often not to be secured at any figure.

INCREASING DEMAND FOR COAL.

The Seattle, Renton and Talbot coal mines are all pressed to their utmost producing capacity, to meet the fast increasing demand for coal to ship to San Francisco. Hitherto it has been with great difficulty that they were able to fill orders, but now, since the arrival of two of the P. M. S. S. Co's steamships, the Salvador and City of Panama, and the subsequent arrangements which have been perfected between the steamship company and the coal companies, which is the supplying of their vessels with coal semi-monthly (as a regular line is now being established between San Francisco and Seattle), it will require very great effort, indeed, for this almost inexhaustible market to be supplied by them. All these companies are, however, continually increasing their facilities for getting out and transporting the product of their mines to this city, so that it is hoped the demand will not exceed the supply.

STONE BUILDINGS.

The two stone bank buildings now in course of erection here are progressing rapidly to completion. They will be handsome and commodious buildings.

SHIPPING.

There are now lying in port the bark Oriola, to load with Seattle coal for San Francisco, the ship Orpheus, to load with 1,600 tons of Seattle coal for San Francisco, and the barkentine Emma Augusta, ready for sea with lumber from Coleman's mill for San Francisco. The City of Panama sailed last night at 9 P. M. for San Francisco with 400 tons of Talbot and 1,000 tons of Seattle coal. K. C. W.

THE "RETORT COURTEOUS."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It does not seem very much to the point for the opposition to charge Mr. Warren with having been a Know-nothing; for if the charge is intended to carry with it any reproach, it will tell with effect against hundreds of the leaders of the Democratic party of to-day. Charges which have only a political or partisan bearing cannot have much weight. For instance, it would probably amount to little to remind the public that in secession times Mr. Lane was a very earnest secessionist; that his father, the last day he sat in the Senate, made an elaborate secession speech, and that his brother fought through the whole war on the Confederate side. But as secession is one of the things long past, and not exactly a pertinent issue just now, it would be little to the purpose of the present canvass to remind the public every day that Mr. Lane was a secessionist. Yet this would be a graver charge than the opposition have been able to make against Mr. Warren. READER.

Col. M. Richard Muckle, of the Philadelphia Ledger lately sent a handsome cane, made of wood taken from Independence Hall, to Prince Von Bismarck, and has received in acknowledgment an autograph letter, of which the following is a translation:

VARZIN, July 4, 1875.—Colonel M. Richard Muckle, Philadelphia—DEAR SIR: You have had the kindness to send me as a support in my olden days a cane cut from the timber of the belfry from the heights of which ninety-nine years ago to-day the old bell first rang in honor of that grand commonwealth whose ship bells to-day give full and welcome sound in all the waters of the globe. I beg you will accept my heartfelt thanks for this historical reminiscence, which I shall honor and carefully preserve and hand down to my children, with other relics of remarkable years. This day is one which never fails to recall to my mind the happy hours which I spent on many a Fourth of July with American friends—first, with John Lothrop Motley, in Goettingen, 1832; again, with Mitchel C. King and Amory Coffin. Would that you, my dear Colonel, and I might always be as healthy and contented as we four young fellows were forty-three years ago at Goettingen celebrating the Fourth of July. V. BISMARCK.

The young man who went West, a few months ago, has only sent one letter home. It came Friday. It said, "Send me a wig;" and his fond parents don't know whether he is married or scalped.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 25, 1875.

THE PACIFIC MAIL BRIBERY SUIT.

It seems the reports that the Pacific Mail Co.'s suit in the court of common pleas at Minneapolis, against Wm. S. King, the congressional lobbyist, has been compromised, are not true. The case was called at the term of court which has just been held, and Rufus Hatch filed an affidavit for continuance, in which he detailed at some length the particulars of the transaction, stating, among other things, that on May 27, 1872, Richard B. Irwin, a confidential agent of the company, drew $750,000, for which he has never rendered any account, and that subsequently it has come to the knowledge of the company that, without the authority of the company and in violation of his duties to them, he paid to King $125,000 of the money, and to John G. Schumaker $300,000, they each representing that they had such influence with members of Congress as would enable them to secure the passage of the bill granting a subsidy to the Pacific Mail Company. The affidavit further states that King, Schumaker, Irwin and Stockwell, the last named having been president of the company at the time of the transaction and cognizant thereof, are now together in London, and that the affiant believes one or all of them can be made to testify in court to the facts stated in the affidavit, and further that one of them, it is understood, will return and be within the jurisdiction of the court before the term of the court which will be holden in March, 1876. Upon this affidavit the continuance was granted.

This does not look like an amicable proceeding. It will be to the credit of the Company to press the suit to the end, provided it is true, as claimed, that the corrupt conduct of Stockwell, Irwin & Co. was without the knowledge and consent of the directors. If it was with their knowledge and consent the prosecution of King is only less rascally than the original crime.

The fact that King, Schumaker, Stockwell and Irwin are together in London, looks as if they felt that it was important for them to be well out of the jurisdiction of the court, and adds weight to the course of the plaintiff in asking the continuance as a circumstance tending to show that the suit is not a sham, but to be prosecuted in earnest.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE NATIVE RACES OF THE PACIFIC STATES OF NORTH AMERICA. By Hubert H. Bancroft. D. Appleton & Co., New York. Five volumes, cloth $5 50; sheep $6 per volume.

The author who assigns to himself the task of collecting, comparing and arranging all the obtainable facts concerning a single people, takes upon himself an Herculean labor. The mere historian, as history is usually written, does but the surface work, leaving the facts and forces which underlie the narrative almost untouched. The undertaking of the author of the Native Races was doubly difficult, because it involved the development of all these underlying facts and forces, in the history of races without a record of the past and whose habits and condition at present render the obtaining of information difficult in the extreme. But he brought to the work such preparation in the way of previous research and study as never before was made by any American author. Years of patient investigation, carried on at the cost of a sum of money which he could scarcely hope to see returned, have brought their fruits together in these volumes, the first three of which are before the public. The first volume treats of the Wild Tribes from the northern extremity of the continent to the Isthmus, giving their condition, habits and customs, &c. The second, of the civilized tribes, that is, those who have attained some degree of civilization, which inhabited the southern part of the continent; unfolding to view their systems of government, laws, manners, &c. The third volume is on the Myths and Languages of the native races. Wendell Phillips says in a notice of the work, "It is a history full and complete; every characteristic amply illustrated; ever picture preserved; all the traits marshalled with such skill as leaves nothing further to de desired." Vol. four in press, is on Antiquities and Architectural Remains. And the fifth and last gives the facts and speculations upon the Aboriginal History of the native races, a fit division for the summing up of the results of the preceding volumes.

WIGWAM AND WAR PATH, OR THE ROYAL CHIEF IN CHAINS. By A. B. Meacham. John P. Dale & Co., Boston.

An Oregon man hitherto unknown to literary fame makes his debut in a thick octavo volume of 700 pages. The title of the work is a sufficient statement of the subject—Indians; the occasion of it is the Modoc war, and the Royal Chief is the late Captain Jack. Indian stories are always considered readable by boys—of all ages; and the volume before us is no exception. Indeed, it is rather better than the average of its class, for its purpose is higher than that of the ordinary Indian book. It looks to something beyond the amusement of the reader. Mr. Meacham is full of the idea that the Indians are human beings, and that that circumstance should be taken into account by the government in dealing with them; and he loses no opportunity in the course of his narrative, if narrative it may be called, to give that idea due prominence. He sees the wrongs done to the Indians as plainly as those done by them, a species of double vision which, though generally out of repute in this country, is a great help to a man who wishes to be just to a subject race.

This book will never take high rank as a literary work. In style it can hardly be called classic English. But there is drama in its movement, and often poetry in its sentiment. Meacham possesses an exuberant imagination, which is not held in restraint by over-much culture. His book will read better in the East, however, than here. People on this coast do not take kindly to matters connected with the Indians—they have been accustomed to see, and especially to Captain Jack and Scarfaced Charley; and they are not likely to render as favorable a verdict upon this book as it deserves. And then the story of the author's thirty years experience with the Indians will not help it any, when people know with how much allowance the story is to be taken. Mr. Meacham was superintendent of Indian affairs for two or three years, and that is the extent of his experience with Indians in Oregon. What he may have done in that direction before he settled in this State in the spring of 1863, we do not pretend to know. His extensive experiences were probably in some other part of the world. But it does not take thirty years to find out something about Indian character, and the question is one of veracity in advertising rather than of merit, so far as concerns this book.

BISHOP OF ILLINOIS.

The Oregon Churchman, in its last issue, says: "A telegraphic dispatch of Sept. 23 says that Rev. Dr. M. E. McLaren, Rector of Trinity church, Cleveland, Ohio, has been elected bishop of Illinois." We presume this means Rev. Dr. Wm. E. McLaren, a son of Dr. McLaren, an old Scotch-Irish Presbyterian, who presided for many years over the Western University at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The son was graduated there about 1850. From 1852 to 1857 he was connected editorially with, first, the Cleveland Plaindealer, and afterwards with the Pittsburgh Gazette. Even in his younger days he wrote the purest English, and was a most conscientious, high-minded man. He subsequently studied divinity at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Allegheny City, Pennsylvania, and after preaching Calvanistic Presbyterianism, he was admitted into the Episcopal Church, where, we predict, he will in time become a bright particular star.

Our Tacoma correspondent gives a cheering account of affairs over on the Sound. We congratulate the people of that region on their prosperity and their truly great resources. But we are afraid our correspondent is premature in assuming that the wheat of the Wallamet valley is to be carried out of the country by way of the Sound. The Columbia river has not dried up yet, and so long as it continues to flow, the bulk of Oregon produce will reach the sea by its mouth. Oregon is willing for the Sound to enjoy her coal trade and her lumber, and everything that is hers, even to her hops, but Oregon will insist on using the natural outlets to the high seas till those outlets are closed by that power from which there is no appeal. When that time comes our people will be glad to avail themselves of the benefit of the Sound, unless that also is stopped up.

Yesterday morning's dispatches announced that O. W. Dering had been appointed custodian of the new postoffice building in this city and W. L. Higgins was ordered to turn over the property to him. The name as telegraphed was doubtless incorrect. It should have been O. N. Denny. The building having been completed there is no longer any need for a superintendent, and Higgins retires because his work is done. The designation of Denny as custodian, simply means that, as somebody must have the care of the building, and as Denny is Collector of Internal Revenue, and has his office there, it has been deemed proper to name him as the custodian. The position is not a distinct office and has no compensation attached to it.

The San Francisco Chronicle contains the items of the recent financial expression of devotion to the Pope by the churches of California which foot up $6,512.

CITY [illegible]

ACCIDENT—RUNAWAY.—At about noon Friday, while Mr. Henry Hewett, accompanied by Mr. L. Therkelsen, the builder, was approaching the residence of the former gentleman, near Samaritan Hospital, the horse which the latter was driving became frightened at an object and shied suddenly, throwing the occupants of the buggy into the road. The gentlemen recovered from the fall in time to see the frightened animal making time equaled by "Lulu" for B street, down which thoroughfare it pursued its course, followed closely by the vehicle, and bringing up on Front street, fortunately, in good order. The gentlemen were stunned for a few moments, Mr. Hewett complaining of a slight pain in the shoulder, while Mr. Therkelsen felt a peculiar sensation in the left leg, in the region of the ankle. Later in the day we met the latter gentleman, who was suffering great pain, and the prospects are that he may be compelled to remain at home several days. Mr. Hewett we did not hear from later than [illegible] o'clock last evening.

FRUIT DRYER SOLD.—Yesterday the plummer fruit dryer, which has been in successful operation in East Portland for some weeks, was sold. The purchasers are the Multnomah Fruit, Vegetable, Meat and Fish Drying Company, proceedings of the organization of which company were published in Friday's OREGONIAN. The stockholders composing this joint stock company are all well known citizens of this county, men of considerable means and recognized enterprise. Without exception all the stockholders are fruit-growers. Under the auspices of the new company, operations will commence on Monday, and the dryer will be in full blast, running day and night, until further notice. We confess the new company act as if they mean business, and propose to carry forward to successful consummation the new and important enterprise so recently inaugurated in this county. Success to their efforts.

CHURCH ELECTION.—At a meeting of the members of the A. M. E. Zion Church, held on Thursday, for the purpose of electing trustees to serve for the ensuing year, the following persons were nominated by the pastor and duly elected by the church: David Samson, Dodge Davis, W. H. Hunter, A. F. Flowers, Henry Lone, Titus Clark, A. B. Smith. Mr. E. S. Simmons acted as secretary pro tem. of the meeting. Yesterday the board of trustees held a meeting, which was called to order by the pastor. The following members were present: D. Samson, D. Davis, H. Lone, T. Clark, A. F. Flowers, A. B. Smith. Absent—W. H. Hunter. On motion, Rev. Mr. Smith was chosen president of the board, Mr. Flowers secretary, and Mr. Samson treasurer. The board meets on the first Monday of each month at 7:30 o'clock P. M.

THE SHIP MCNEAR.—This large and handsome vessel, which arrived here a few days since, now lies at the gas company's dock, discharging ballast. The McNear was built at Belfast, Maine, in 1872. Her dimensions are as follows: Length overall, 190 feet; beam, 3[illegible] feet; hold, 24 feet; registered capacity, 1,30[illegible] tons. She can carry with ease and perfect safety 1,800 tons of freight, and, when loaded, draws 22 feet of water. The McNear is owned by Capt. Baker McNear, of Watertown, Mass. Last year the McNear carried a cargo of grain from San Francisco to Europe. On her return she brought coals from England to Hongkong. Discharging cargo, the ship brought Chinese passengers from Hongkong to San Francisco. From the latter mentioned port she came in ballast to Portland. The McNear is chartered by Messrs. Kinney & Bros., and will carry to Europe a mixed cargo, consisting of wheat and flour.

HAND 'EM IN.—Mr. Andrew Hill, our energetic city assessor, is now busily engaged in making up the assessment roll for this city. Consequently he is very anxious to have all persons, to whom he has forwarded printed statements, fill out the blanks at the earliest practicable date, and hand the same to him at his office, corner of Stark and Front streets, Pittock's building. In order to enable him to carry forward the work expeditiously, it is necessary to have all the statements handed in as soon as possible. Mr. Hill can be found at his office all day on Saturdays, where he will remain for the special accommodation of the public. Fill out your blanks and hand in the statements.

PASSENGERS.—This afternoon at 4 o'clock the steamer John L. Stephens will sail hence for San Francisco carrying away the following passengers: Mrs. Commodore Frances Connor, N. Solomon, Geo. W. Vaughn, Miss Libbie Vaughn, Miss Kitty Mountain, Miss Traver, Mrs. J. L. Henderson, Mrs. Geo. LaRoque, Edw. Hisgen, Jas. Hitchcock, S. G. Whipple, S. Rankin, wife and niece, Peter Taylor, J. L. Champlin and wife, Isaac Ball and wife, Mrs. Mary Ballard and two children, Chas. E. Burgbam and wife, Mrs. H. Reese, Mrs. A. J. Shepman and 2 infants, William Whitehouse, Henry Pape, Wells, Fargo & Co's Mess., and 20 in the steerage.

CONCLUDING LECTURE.—Dr. J. L. York will conclude his course of lectures under the auspices of the Liberal Association, to-morrow, at Oro Fino theater, at 2 o'clock P. M. He will lecture on "Temperance Reform," and at 7:30 P. M. will give his concluding lecture, subject, "Progressive Life." All are invited to attend. A special invitation, we understand, has been given the Young Men's Christian Association to attend. They have not yet signified their intention, but it is hoped they will accept as they will be given a most cordial welcome.

LETTERS BY WELLS, FARGO & CO.—Since the postoffice has been removed, many persons have dropped their mail in the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., and in the boxes owned by that company on the street corners. As these letters do not bear the stamp of the company they do not feel the responsibility of dispatching them. Quite a number of such letters have accumulated in their office. The company carry only letters that are prepaid by the stamp bearing the words "Wells, Fargo & Company."

INSANE PATIENT.—Sheriff Twilight, of Astoria, arrived in the city last evening, having in charge an insane person named Edmund K. Pinkney. The patient is but a boy—being only about 18 years old—and came to Astoria a few weeks ago on board the British bark Delharre. He came as an apprentice boy, and during the passage manifested unmistakable symptoms of insanity. On Thursday, Pinkney was examined before the proper authorities and adjudged insane.

PORTLANDERS ABROAD.—The Baker City Herald says: "Mr. W. J. VanSchuyver, of the firm of Millard & VanSchuyver, Portland, one of the assignees of the property of J. W. Virtue, has been in town for a few days. B. P. Cardwell, U. S. revenue collector, is looking after the interests of Uncle Sam. Whisky dealers know what kind of business he is looking after."

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 25, 1875.

CITY.

ACCIDENT—RUNAWAY.—At about noon on Friday, while Mr. Henry Hewett, accompanied by Mr. L. Therkelsen, the builder, were approaching the residence of the former gentleman, near Samaritan Hospital, the horse which the latter was driving became frightened at an object and shied suddenly, throwing the occupants of the buggy into the road. The gentlemen recovered from the fall in time to see the frightened animal making time only equaled by "Lulu" for B street, down which thoroughfare it pursued its course, followed closely by the vehicle, and bringing up at Front street, fortunately, in good order. The gentlemen were stunned for a few moments, Mr. Hewett complaining of a slight pain in the shoulder, while Mr. Therkelsen felt a peculiar sensation in the left leg, in the region of the ankle. Later in the day we met the latter gentleman, who was suffering great pain, and the prospects are that he may be compelled to remain at home several days. Mr. Hewett we did not hear from later than 4 o'clock last evening.

FRUIT DRYER SOLD.—Yesterday the plummer fruit dryer, which has been in successful operation in East Portland for some weeks, was sold. The purchasers are the Multnomah Fruit, Vegetable, Meat and Fish Drying Company, proceedings of the organization of which company were published in Friday's OREGONIAN. The stockholders composing this joint stock company are all well known citizens of this county, men of considerable means and recognized enterprise. Without exception all the stockholders are fruit-growers. Under the auspices of the new company, operations will commence on Monday, and the dryer will be in full blast, running day and night, until further notice. We confess the new company act as if they mean business, and propose to carry forward to successful consummation the new and important enterprise so recently inaugurated in this county. Success to their efforts.

CHURCH ELECTION.—At a meeting of the members of the A. M. E. Zion Church, held on Thursday, for the purpose of electing trustees to serve for the ensuing year, the following persons were nominated by the pastor and duly elected by the church: David Samson, Dodge Davis, W. H. Hunter, A. F. Flowers, Henry Lone, Titus Clark, A. B. Smith. Mr. E. S. Simmons acted as secretary pro tem of the meeting. Yesterday the board of trustees held a meeting, which was called to order by the pastor. The following members were present: D. Samson, D. Davis, H. Lone, T. Clark, A. F. Flowers, A. B. Smith. Absent—W. H. Hunter. On motion, Rev. Mr. Smith was chosen president of the board, Mr. Flowers secretary, and Mr. Samson treasurer. The board meets on the first Monday of each month at 7:30 o'clock P. M.

THE SHIP McNEAR.—This large and handsome vessel, which arrived here a few days since, now lies at the gas company's dock, discharging ballast. The McNear was built at Belfast, Maine, in 1872. Her dimensions are as follows: Length overall, 190 feet; beam, 38 feet; hold, 24 feet; registered capacity, 1,808 tons. She can carry with ease and perfect safety 1,800 tons of freight; and, when loaded, draws 22 feet of water. The McNear is owned by Capt. Baker McNear, of Watertown, Mass. Last year the McNear carried a cargo of grain from San Francisco to Europe. On her return she brought coals from England to Hongkong. Discharging cargo, the ship brought Chinese passengers from Hongkong to San Francisco. From the latter mentioned port she came in ballast to Portland. The McNear is chartered by Messrs. Kinney & Bros., and will carry to Europe a mixed cargo, consisting of wheat and flour.

HARD AT IT.—Mr. Andrew Hill, our energetic city assessor, is now busily engaged in making up the assessment roll for this city. Consequently he is very anxious to have all persons, to whom he has forwarded printed statements, fill out the blanks at the earliest practicable date, and hand the same to him at his office, corner of Stark and Front streets, Pittock's building. Mr. Hill can be found at his office all day on Saturdays, where he will remain for the special accommodation of the public. Fill out your blanks and hand in the statements.

PASSENGERS.—This afternoon at 4 o'clock, the steamer John L. Stephens will sail hence for San Francisco carrying away the following passengers: Mrs. Commodore Frances Connor, N. Soloman, Geo. W. Shepman and 2 infants, William Whitehouse, Henry Pape, Wells, Fargo & Co's Mess, and 20 in the steerage.

PINE STREET SEWER.—Mr. A. Hamilton, who has the contract for constructing the sewer along Pine street from Fourth to the river, commenced operations yesterday. A force of Chinamen commenced excavating near the bank of the river during the afternoon of yesterday. The sewer will consist of terra cotta pipe one foot in diameter. Mr. Hamilton will push the work forward with all despatch so as to have it completed before the beginning of the rainy season.

POLL BOOKS.—Mr. Geo. L. Story is at present engaged in preparing the poll books for the coming congressional election which will take place on Monday, Oct. 25th. These books will soon be distributed by the sheriff among the various precincts of the county.

FOR THE LADIES.

Fashion notes says: "Increasing flatness characterizes all costumes made for the present season." So it does the wearers.

The dear women are all on tip-toe to know what the hint from Paris means about a "radical change in bonnets" for next winter.

With servant girls dressed in Hamburg lace, with kid gloves, hunting up a job, the shriek for woman's rights has somewhat subsided.

In the days of James the First "stocking suspenders" were broad, with gold fringes and point-lace ends, and these are now fashionable, so we are told.

We never heard so many young ladies on the street cars say, "I prefer to stand," as since this pull-back style has come in fashion, and so we rather like it.

A Pennsylvania woman recently hung herself with a corset. Ordinarily the corset kills by inches, and the one referred to must have been a superior article.

The coming boot is called the Pompeilian. It is of black velvet and very high; the legging in front all Vevetian cut-work, embroidered with a tiny silver cord.

A Parisian girl advertises in Figaro for a husband, with the proviso: "I had rather be the wife of a joiner than the slave of a prince." But she may fetch up as the slave of a joiner. How, then?

The newest things in Llama lace are costumes consisting of sleeveless jacket and apron, with wide sash, which ties at the back. They are very pretty, and a complete finish to the dress, inside or out.

A fashionably-dressed young woman, putting fancy touches at the music yesterday, was heard saying: "Backward, pin backward, oh, skirts in your flight; make me look small again, just for to-night."

The square open overskirt has a straight width in the middle of the front, cut out low at the top of the waist; this makes two long straight selvedge seams, one on each side, and to this are added pieces with square corners for the back.

We are becoming alarmed since the news has come from Paris that stockings are to be sold at from $40 to $60 a pair, that they are to be embroidered in beautiful designs and many colors, and that the tops are to be trimmed with costly lace.

The fall openings began this season at the "White House," where there has been a grand display of millinery goods for the past two days. At Miss J. Macnamara's the opening days are set for next week, and other houses will announce in a few days. The styles, of course, are new and very attractive, including the "Lingard," "Long Branch" and others. We shall be able to speak further of them next week.

MUSICAL NOTES.

The "Fairest of the Fair," a song and dance, words and music composed by Mr. Chas. Bray, will soon be published.

Rehearsals are held every week by the Portland Amateur Musical Society. There will be a grand rehearsal at the rooms, to-morrow at 2 o'clock.

Music on the plaza is a thing of the past. Shall we hear more of it? There is time for two or more concerts ere it becomes too cold and disagreeable.

Prof. Parrish, of the Northwestern Brass Band, has made his appearance again as prompter of several private parties lately, after an absence in that capacity for some time.

The orchestral concert to be given by the Amateur Musical Society, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, promises to be an attractive affair. The orchestra will be the largest and most complete that has yet appeared at any entertainment in this city. Among the pieces to be performed will be selections from Verdi's opera "Il Trovatore," Donizetti's tragic opera "Lucretia Borgia," and the beautiful Rhine Waltzes. The full programme will be announced next week.

Song service at the Good Templars' hall, Sunday evening, Sept. 26, 1875, conducted by Prof. J. B. McGibeny. Programme:

1. Chorus—Glory Hallelujah..........Congregation.
2. Chorus—Happy Songs..........Family.
3. Recitation—Whom to Thank..........Master Frank.
4. Chorus—Cast the Net..........Family.
5. Song—Rest in the Lord..........Miss Owens.
6. Quartette—Where is my Little One..........Family.
7. Song—Dreaming of Home and Mother..........Miss Deal.
8. Chant and Responses—Sayings of Jesus..........Family and Students.
9. Song—If Papa were only ready..........Master Hugh.
10. Solo and Chorus—Calling us Away..........Mrs. McGibeny and congregation.
12. Songs and Refrain—The Little Cripple's Song..........Mrs. McGibeny & Miss Viola.
11. Choruses—The Gate Ajar and Shining Shore, by Rev. Dong Gong and some of his members.

All lovers of song are cordially invited.

FIRE MATTERS.

Time for the election of chief engineer is approaching, and the "boys" are doing some tall "buzzing." There will be several candidates in the field, we understand.

One of the springs belonging to No. 3's steamer was considerably damaged during the fire of last Sunday. It was repaired at once, and the steamer is in A 1 condition again.

Frank Brown, who severely cut his foot last Sunday while chopping through the wall of the burning building, has so far recovered from the effects as to appear again on the streets.

W. A. Hart, first assistant engineer, P. F. D., will be absent from the city during the coming week, in attendance at the Hillsboro fair. During his absence Mr. J. J. Meagher, second assistant, will fill the position.

During the fire last Sunday afternoon the hose cart belonging to Tiger Engine Company, No. 5, was badly damaged, by being jammed against some object. Necessary repairs have been made, and the cart is in good condition for service.

Mr. Jos. Webber (and who among the old residents of Portland don't know Joe?) of the Albany fire department, and Captain N. B. Humphrey, who is also one of the "boys," have recently had a number of photographs taken, and sent to the several fire companies of this city. These handsomely executed pictures will soon assist in adorning the walls of the engine houses.

THE TURF.

There are now a number of horses in constant course of training at the Washington county fair grounds, including Foster, Oregon, Nameless and Ryestraw.

Coggan's fleet footed "Osceola" was to have arrived in this city on Tuesday, from Eastern Oregon, en route for the Washington county fair, but the animal has failed, up to the present writing, to put in an appearance.

From the Democrat we learn that there are now seven horses in training at the fair grounds near Albany, and the track is working up into fine condition. B. B. Acker, of Portland, has rented five stalls, and will have as many horses there during the fall. Mr. Bybee has secured room for several horses, and Mr. Bingham writes that he will be present with a number of horses. Mr. S. G. Reed, of Portland, will have all his fine stock there, and there will be a number from other localities.

AMUSEMENTS.

This evening, Mr. R. C. White, who is one of the favorite actors with theater goers of Portland, will be the recipient of a complimentary benefit at New Market theater. Aside from the claims of the beneficiary, a splendid bill will be offered the public. There will be two farces, besides an interlude, during which will be presented a number of comic songs, character sketches, etc. A host of volunteers will appear on the occasion. Give him a bumper.

Notwithstanding the rush to buy damaged goods elsewhere the sales during the past week at Beck & Waldman's has been unusually large. The reason is that they offer an attractive stock, nearly all new, of clothing and furnishing goods, at low prices.

CAPITAL NOTES.

"Wide Awake," writing from Salem yesterday sends the following notes:

Base ball is about to revive once more. Picked nines intend competing for the championship on Saturday next.

Jerry Coldwell is doing the locals for the Daily Evening Mercury, and George Good holds a case in the composing room.

Mr. Watkins, who recently received such outrageous treatment at the hands of the man Whiteman, is now in the city.

State Fair matters are progressing finely and the attendance promises to be unusually large. Fair weather is anxiously hoped for.

Frank E. Arnold, formerly of the Portland postoffice, is now at White Salmon, W. T., engaged, we believe, in the stock business.

Hon. J. H. Fairchild, Indian Agent at the Siletz Reservation, has resigned his position. Mr. William Bagley is mentioned as his successor.

Old Bennett, the well-known scissors grinder, of your city, is now perambulating the streets of Salem with his "gohicle" to the infinite amusement of the average hoodlum. He appears to be doing a land office business.

The Capital Library and National History Association of this city have disorganized and turned over their books and other property to the Young Men's Christian Association, who will at once remove the effects into their rooms in Patton's block. Saml. G. Grey has been appointed Librarian.

BRIEF NOTES.

State circuit court to-day.

Mr. White's benefit this evening.

The line was down yesterday afternoon, but got to working in the evening.

A party of male vocalists were engaged last evening in rendering the patriotic strains of "America," while gliding over the bosom of the river.

A dwelling house situated in the southern portion of the city, narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Thursday afternoon. Timely discovery of the destroyer saved the premises.

Some very fine ledges of galena ore have recently been discovered in the Bohemia district, and we understand that Mr. Wright, of Salem, is developing a very promising mine in that vicinity.

Heavy fires were doubtless raging yesterday and last evening in the woods, some miles east of the city, judging from the clouds of smoke which rose in the afternoon and the light that illuminated the horizon after darkness set in.

A refractory steer made an unsuccessful attempt to run into the drug store of Hodge, Calef & Co., yesterday morning. Not admiring the odor of a thousand and one drugs, the bovine beat a hasty retreat, much to the satisfaction of the perturbed clerks.

MILITARY NOTES.

Capt. Stephen G. Whipple, first cavalry, having acted according to the instructions of the department commander, of the 16th inst., his journey from Fort Walla Walla, W. T., to Portland, Oregon, is approved.

Leave of absence for one month, to take effect the 26th inst., with permission to leave the limits of the department and to apply for an extension for one month, if found necessary, is granted Capt. Stephen G. Whipple, first cavalry.

The public exigencies requiring the immediate delivery of the article, the chief commissary of subsistence is authorized to purchase, in open market, at lowest obtainable rates, 4,000 pounds hay to subsist 15 beef cattle, delivered under contract, en route to the military post of Sitka, Alaska.

Capt. Harry M. Smith, 21st infantry, is appointed to act as inspector on certain quartermaster's stores and clothing, camp and garrison equipage at Fort Lapwai, I. T., for which First Lieutenant Edward R. Theller, twenty-first infantry, post quartermaster, is accountable, reported the 15th inst., as requiring the action of an inspector.

BALL AND BAT.

The prospect for any brilliant games for the state championship is not very promising.

There will be a practice game this afternoon at the East Portland grounds at 3:30 o'clock sharp, between the Pioneer and Arcadian clubs. A rattling game may be anticipated, and we hope to see a large crowd.

Out of seventy championship games played by the Boston club up to the 12th inst., they have won sixty, tied in three and lost seven. The season does not terminate until Nov. 1st, but it is evident from the record, says the Clipper, that the Bostons will fly the whip pennant for 1875–76. The Athletics stand second.

The following note, from the secretary of the Spartan B. B. club, will best explain itself: "The Spartans, of Vancouver, have challenged the Arcadians, of Portland, for a match game of base ball, to be played on Saturday, the 25th inst. The Spartans have received no answer from the Arcadians, and would like to hear from them as soon as possible."

SOCIAL EVENTS.

On Tuesday a very pleasant social party was held at the residence of Dr. Alfred Kinney.

Quite a brilliant social party was held last evening at the residence of Col. Jos. Teal. It was pronounced a recherche affair.

A social hop was given at the residence of Col. W. H. Effinger on Thursday evening, which was attended by a select and fashionable party of ladies and gentlemen. Dancing was freely indulged in for several hours, during which refreshments were served. A most pleasant, sociable time was experienced.

A number of ladies and gentlemen belonging to the most fashionable social circles of the city, assembled at the residence of Mr. C. H. Lewis last evening, to indulge for a few hours in the mazy waltz, gliding mazurka and the animated evolutions of the quadrille. It was one of the most pleasant social parties which has been given for some time.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

And now comes C. M. Wiberg, who is marking down boots and shoes, summer styles, at cost. Call and see what he can do for you in the way of "foot gear."

Miss Macnamara announces the opening days for early next week. Of course, all the ladies will be anxious to look at the latest styles in hats and bonnets. There will be a grand rush, no doubt.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Isaac B. Smith to H. H. Lane, a piece of land situated in section 33, T. 1 N., R. 2 E., containing 989 acres—$1,000.

Geo. V. James and wife to M. Naucke, lots 6 and 7, in block 15, Couch's Addition—$1,400.

Maranda Jane Whitcomb to Pasqual Diveral, the east ½ of the northeast ¼ of southeast ¼ of section 25, T. 1 N., R. 1 west, containing 20 acres—$1,000.

Caroline Couch to Isaac B. Smith, a piece of land containing 11 64-100 acres, in section 33, T. 1 N., R. 1 E.—$1.

Another new brand of cigars just opened at Tom O'Brien's. They are capital. Try a box.

Before and after to-night's entertainment go to Fabre & Barnes', Central Market.

The peculiar finish of the Elmwood collar makes it thoroughly perspiration proof. All firstclass furnishing stores sell them.

The first invoice of fall and winter goods arrived on the last steamer and are now arranged in order so that JOS. KOHN'S numerous customers can call and see all that is new and attractive in the clothing line. The styles displayed are the very latest in the market and must prove quite saleable. Fresh arrivals every steamer, selected expressly for the trade by Mr. Kohn, who knows just what will please his patrons. Call to-day and make your purchases.

PERSONAL.—Mr. M. Rosenblatt, of 79 Front street, returned last evening on the John L. Stephens, from San Francisco, with a large stock of Clothing, etc., for gentlemen and youths. The Philosophy of Disease.
The philosophy of disease is a subject which is worthy the attention of mankind, but is, unfortunately, more generally neglected than any other under heaven. Decidedly the most important fact that an examination of it discloses is that in nine cases out of ten, the originating causes of disease is debility, either general or local, and that the earliest manifestations of its approach are identical with those which evidence a lack of vital power. Such being the case, it is perfectly clear that tonic treatment is what is required in the first instance. As an invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has received the most positive endorsement from eminent physicians, and has long occupied a foremost rank among standard proprietary remedies. Its properties as an alterative of disordered conditions of the stomach, liver and bowels, and a preventive of malarial diseases, are no less renowned, and have been accorded professional recommendation equally emphatic.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold," which would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, often attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," give sure and almost immediate relief.

IMPORTANT.—Indorsed by the Medical profession. Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Chest. Dr. TOWNSLEY'S TOOTHACHE ANODYNE cures in one MINUTE.

SUMMER CORRESPONDENCE.

THE WIFE.

As you say, Colonel, here it is charming;
("Sweet Angel, I beg for a waltz.")
Your Battery's really alarming;
I am sure that you know it is false,
But I'll waltz with you round for a minute,
Just to prove how you erred in your haste;
A waltz is quite nice while you're in it—
Don't hold quite so tight on my waist.

(Writes.)

"Dear Husband: I'm penning this letter
In loneliness here at the Springs;
Every day makes me deeper your debtor
For the kind words the precious mail brings.
But oh! what a void fills my bosom—
You there, and I here all alone.
No friends, if I e'en wish to choose 'em,
You chained to your desk like a drone."

THE HUSBAND.

Here, Charley, help fill up the basket;
Put in the champagne and the ice;
Never mind if you should overtask it—
Fill it up with this bric a brac nice.
Those Dutch girls will soon make it lighter,
After the dance and the swings.
Throw in these cigars. Strap it tighter,
While I write a line to the Springs.

(Writes.)

"Slowly the shadows are falling,
Alike on my desk and my life;
The plaint of a famished love, calling
For you, my sweet treasure—my wife!
I sit here so wearily thinking,
And wishing my penance were o'er,
And dreaming our love is a linking
My heart with your heart evermore."

—Louis Carroll Prindle.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.

[From Tom Hood's Comic Almanac 1875.]

My brother and I are twins. There can be no mistake about that, for our likeness to each other is so great that it is positively unpleasant to our friends and ourselves. The celebrated Corsician brothers were not more alike than we are; that is, as far as personal appearance goes; beyond that Jim and I are utterly dissimiliar. For instance: I am fond of trade, Jim hates it; I have a great dislike to horse racing, Jim dotes upon what he pleases to call "the turf." I avoid danger to such an extent that I have heard some uncharitable people call my caution cowardice; now, nothing pleases my brother better than running risks. I am quiet and peaceable to a fault, while Jim is always up to mischief and constantly in hot water; in a word, two creatures more alike in features and unlike in character never existed.

How I did it I cannot tell, but, by some means, I managed to offend a big hulking fellow, whom I recognized as the owner of a butcher's shop exactly facing my establishment. I tried all I could to soothe the monster, but he glared at me like an ogre, and made such very strong remarks that I thought it better to keep silent, hoping thereby to let the storm blow over. Vain hope! the butcher being unable to speak to me, in consequence of my silence, vented his malice by speaking at me. He complained about tradesmen opening new shops in opposition to the old ones; declared that he had been made quite sick by some bad butter he had seen that day, and hoped, when the inspector of weights and measures visited the neighborhood, that he would look after some shopkeepers in particular, for he, Mr. Grote, had watched one fellow tampering with his weights and scales all day.

I knew he meant me, for I certainly had amused myself in the intervals of serving my customers by polishing up my scales and weights, and as I saw by their looks that the company knew the wretch intended me, I had no help for it but to reply.

"Sir," said I, in the most concilatory manner possible, "I am exceedingly sorry that I should have unwillingly offended you, as it appears I have done, but I cannot fail to see that your observations are evidently intended for me."

"If the cap fits, you may wear it," grinned the brute. "I shan't mention names, to give any one the opportunity of getting the law of me; I ain't so green."

"The cap does not fit," I replied, "for I beg to say that my butter is excellent, my scales just, and that all your accusations are entirely false."

With a howl of rage the brute sprang from his seat, and dashed his pipe in my face. Luckily, two of his companions seized him, so that I was able to make my escape from the room; but as I fled I could hear him vociferating, "Come on, you coward—let me go—yah! you cur!" and so on, until I had left the house.

From that moment my life was full of misery. That horrid wretch, Grote, would not let me alone; he teased me morning, noon, and night, until I became the laughing stock of the neighborhood, and consequently my trade fell off until ruin seemed to stare me in the face. My neighbors avoided me as if I had the plague, and some even went so far as to join the butcher in annoying me, so that at last I became frightened to go out, and passed my evenings in the little parlor behind my shop, making up my books.

One night whilst I was so engaged, a ring came at the bell. I opened the door, and a man clad in a long cloak, the collar of which was turned up so as to conceal his face, rushed into the passage, a proceeding I no sooner remarked than I immediately prepared to rush out into the street, for I cannot bear burglars; but before I could execute my purpose the fellow caught me by the shoulder, and in tones that froze my very blood, whispered in my ear:

"Don't be a fool, Dick; come in and shut the door, or I shall be seized."

"Jim!" I stammered; "why, what is the matter?"

"Shut the door and come into the parlor, then I will tell you."

I did as he commanded, and then waited impatiently for the explanation of this sudden and mysterious visit.

"Phew!" said Jim, as he threw off his cloak, "I've had a narrow escape."

"But how have you had an escape? and from what have you escaped?"

"Dick, I am ruined!" cried my brother, throwing himself into a chair. "I backed the wrong horse for the St. Leger, and have lost all my money."

"I knew you would, Jim," I said: "I knew you would." But it's no use crying over spilt milk, as the proverb says; you must come and share with me, though heaven knows that I have not much to offer you, for that horrid butcher has nearly ruined me."

"You're a good fellow, Dick, but I have worse news still. You must know that I had £1,000 placed in my hands to buy horses for a gentleman. So convinced was I that Vanderdecken would win this race, that I not only put my money on him, but also that which I had in trust. I have lost all, and have had to fly to avoid the police."

The frightful news so overcame me that I could only wring my hands and exclaim, "Oh, what is to be done? what is to be done?

"This is what must be done," said Jim, in a hurried whisper: "you must take my clothes and my name, and I will take yours in exchange; you must go down to Acton to my rooms, and I will carry on your business here. Do you see?"

"Yes, I see; but the police may arrest me by mistake."

"Of course they will; that's the beauty of the thing. I expect to make a hatful of money over the next race, and when I have done that I will show up, declare that the whole affair has been a mistake, either pay the £1,000 or buy the horses; you will be released, and can bring an action for damages for false imprisonment."

"Yes, that's all very well, Jim; but suppose you should not win this money!"

"Nonsense, my dear fellow; I must win it. It's as safe as the bank."

"Yes, but so was Vanderdecken."

"Oh, bother Vanderdecken! I tell you I must win: besides, should I fail, I bolt over to France; then you prove your identity, they must release you, and there you are."

"Yes; but in the meantime I shall be in prison."

"Not necessarily; you must keep close, and then perhaps they may not find you. I will give you a letter to my friend, Bob Kirby—you are sure to find him at the 'Bit and Bridle,'—and he will tell you what to do. You must not write to me here. Bob will do all the writing, and let you know how things are going. Now come and let us change clothes; there is not a moment to lose, or you will be too late for the train."

"But my business?" I gasped, for I did not like the job at all.

"Oh! I can take care of that; you know I understand the trade."

"But the butcher!"

"I must put up with him, I suppose," said Jim, looking rather blue. "Of course it is not pleasant, but nothing is in this world, and as you have stood his insults for so long a time I suppose I shall be able to bear it for a little while. There is the letter; now off with your clothes and put on mine."

How Jim did it I cannot say, but in less than a quarter of an hour I was dressed in his clothes and turned out of my own house.

I crept along the road, trembling at the sight of a policeman, and wondering at the little notice they took of me. I reached the train in safety, and arrived in Acton without being arrested.

I found the "Bit and Bridle," and Bob Kirby, to whom I delivered the letter. He read it, and at once took me to Jim's rooms, advising me not to move therefrom if I valued my liberty. Need I say that I felt very uncomfortable, and obeyed his orders to the letter?

On the second night after my arrival in Acton Mr. Kirby came to my rooms and told me I must prepare to start for London at once.

"You must take care you are not seen," he continued, "for if you were caught now things would be very awkward. Tell Jim he must come down here at once; he had better walk down, for the trains may be watched. If he can get down without being seen, all will be well; but if not, I fear they will try to make it a case of conspiracy."

Oh, how bitterly I repented having consented to leave my butter shop! for, all things considered, the police were to me worse than the butcher. By keeping myself a strict prisoner in my own house, I could avoid the butcher; but there was no safety from the police.

With a beating heart I crept up to my own shop, and knocked gently at the door, which was opened directly by him, to whom I delivered my dreadful message.

"I must be off at once, Dick" he said, "we must change clothes directly! You will be all right, for I have made every one believe I was you. I make a capital tradesman after all. I've sent your business up wonderfully."

"I'm very glad to hear it, Jim; I'm sure it needed it. But how about the butcher?"

"Oh, he's been a great nuisance, certainly; but look here, Dick, don't you be half so easy with him. I don't believe he has half the pluck he pretends to have."

"I do—I know it!" was my rueful answer, "but if the business is improving, I shall try to put up with the annoyance."

"That's right, Dick! And now, good bye. I'm much obliged to you for what you have done. If any of the girls say you made love to them, you will know that I am the culprit—only don't you say so, but keep the fun up. It's not disagreeable work, I can assure you. Ha! ha! ha! nobody would believe you if you were to swear it was me! So good by and take care of yourself."

With a hearty laugh Jim was on his road; and, with sad heart I sought my bed.

I rose very early the next morning and took down the shutters, so as to avoid meeting that horrid butcher. A few minutes afterwards a very pretty girl came fluttering into the shop, and with many a pretty smile and simper, purchased half a pound of my best fresh butter.

"Why, how dull you are this morning, Mr. Perkins!" she exclaimed, with a pretty shy glance.

"Dull?" I replied, in a dreamy manner.

"Oh, nonsense!" she cried; "it is no good, putting on that modest air, after the way you behaved yesterday. Do you know, when you first come here, we all thought you such a sneak—at least most of us did; but I always said you were not so demure as you wished to make out—and the way you snatched that kiss from me yesterday, proves it."

"So," thought I, "this is the way Master Jim has been improving my business is it?"

I looked at the little rosy mouth, and could not blame him—nay, I ventured to follow his example, and did so with the greatest success.

"Do you know," said the young lady, putting her arms on the counter, "do you know that I have liked you ever since you thrashed that big bully, Grote the butcher?"

"What," I exclaimed in amazement, "thrashed Grote."

"Of course you did, when he came over here swearing he would pull your nose! Oh, I did like the cool way in which you went to meet him and knocked him down. It was splendid!"

Could it be possible? Had my twin brother thrashed the butcher, and left me to reap the glory? As if to confirm my suspicions, at that very instant Grote appeared in his shop—and oh, his face! It was one mass of bruises! I stepped out on to the pavement to have a look at him closer. On seeing me he bowed politely, but I merely shook my fist at him, and he retreated rapidly.

I cannot describe how my business increased from that day, and all through Jim's boldness and light heartedness. During the day I received a letter from my dear brother in which he informed me that he had not lost his money; but, having heard of my misery, he invented this little plot to save me.

I have now several large shops. Jim has never joined me, he having retired from the turf and become a gentleman farmer. I am married, and have a large family. My eldest boy is about to marry Miss Grote, he having become very good friends with me, and, what is better, very rich. But, good friends, as we are, I have never thought it worth while to inform him of his slight mistake!

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and Mandrake with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

The association ... its confidence by tabling my letter on the 23d inst., after Pixley and DeYoung, of San Francisco, had been here during the fortnight pursuing their association on the subject. As customary in such cases, ... if my libellers believe they can damage me under the arrow of cross examination, as some of them profess to think, either regarding press ... or any act of my life I am at their service.
